Re: Introduction of Client Relations Manager

Carter BloodCare continues to offer new services in response to the increasing sophisticated patient needs. We aim to meet these needs with superior customer service.

In this context, the Hospital Relations department is pleased to announce an addition to the team. Andrea Sign has recently accepted the position of Client Relations Manager. Andrea's strengths in marketing, project management and operations are well suited for the role of Client Relations Manager. She will focus on developing proposals for diversified and specialized services, researching and identifying opportunities for campaigns; assisting with enhancing existing customer relations and building new client relationships.
