

To: Transfusion Services Managers
From: Hospital Relations
Date: January 2, 2019
Re: Tier Pricing for Blood Donor Units

As of January 1, 2020, antigen typing of blood donor units was converted to a tiered pricing model. A limited number of customers may have seen the individual pricing on the pack lists from January 1; however, be assured that there is no double billing and your invoices beginning January 1 will represent only the tier pricing.

Our apologies for any inconvenience experienced during this conversion.