The graphic features a red banner at the top right with three white icons: a flame, a microscope, and a test tube. Below this, four periodic table elements are displayed in a row: Hydrogen (1, H), Erbium (68, Er), Oxygen (8, O), and Einsteinium (99, Es). The central text reads "Laboratory professionals are heroes who wear coats instead of capes." The bottom left contains the text "Wishing all laboratory professionals a super lab week." and the bottom right features the Carter BloodCare Specialty Services logo.
