A promotional graphic for the Hospital Forum. It features a white background with scattered autumn leaves in shades of yellow, orange, and brown. At the top right, there is a red curved banner containing three white icons: a blood drop, a microscope, and a blood bag. The main title "Preparing for Tomorrow" is in large, bold, orange font. Below it, the text "Hospital Forum" is in bold blue, followed by details: "Date: November 18, 2022", "Time: 11:00am-1:30pm", "Onsite Option: Bedford, Woodway, Tyler", "Virtual Option: Zoom", and "Lunch will be provided at 11:00am". The "Topics:" section lists: "Pre-Hospital Transfusion Program", "Cold Stored Platelets", "O Negative Inventory Management and Utilization", "New Medical Directors Introductions", and "New iWeBB Features". The "RSVP to:" section says "HospitalRelations@CarterBloodCare.org by November 7, 2022". The Carter BloodCare logo and "SPECIALTY SERVICES" are at the bottom right.
