

To: Carter BloodCare Customers
From: Hospital Relations
Date: February 20, 2024
Re: UPDATE: Action Needed - Component Bag Recall

Update

Late yesterday afternoon, Carter BloodCare received reassuring clarification from the blood manufacturer about the voluntary recall of the blood collection kit. The recall does not affect in-date units. Since there is no evidence of harm or report of adverse reactions, you do not need to quarantine or return these units to Carter BloodCare.

We sincerely apologize for the inconvenience and appreciate your patience and understanding.